The Fraternal Order of Police DC Lodge #1 is comprised of over thirty law enforcement agencies headquartered in the District of Columbia. As Klingle Road joins neighborhoods, the Fraternal Order of Police joins law enforcement to the community.

Our organization, after review of the impact that the closing of Klingle Road has on the public safety of the citizens of the Nation's Capitol, has voted to support the reopening of Klingle Road.

With the reopening of Klingle Road emergency services vehicles of any type can more effectively and quickly respond to calls for service. Recent events have demonstrated the gridlock that can occur and ripple through the community. With the likelihood that traffic will continue to increase in the area all viable avenues should be considered and utilized. Klingle Road is one of them.

For these reasons, the 10,000 members of the Fraternal Order of Police Washington, D.C., supports the opening of Klingle Road.

Fraternally yours,

Louis P Cannon
President
